Anti-Poverty Ministry (APM) support opportunities

The Anti-Poverty Ministry provides valuable services to individuals living in poverty and to the community at large. But we cannot continue to do so without YOUR support!

We are so grateful for the many individuals and organizations who support the work that we do. There are numerous opportunities available to become involved with the advocacy, education and social justice initiatives that the Anti-Poverty Ministry has been involved with for over twenty years.

How can you support our goal to eradicate poverty in the province of Saskatchewan?

1. Educate yourself and become an advocate for the poor in conversations that occur in your workplace, with your family and your friend groups. The Anti-Poverty Ministry's publication entitled, Low Income Anthology is an excellent resource to familiarize yourself about individual people who struggle to live in poverty. Contact our office for a copy, as well as other resources.

2. Contact the APM office to provide assistance with writing to your Provincial MLA about necessary changes to political policies and legislation affecting those living in poverty in Saskatchewan.
3. Donate your time to our organization:
 - a. Become an APM off-site or office Volunteer. Contact the APM office at 306-352-6386 for more information.
 - b. Become an APM Board member or join our Finance and Fundraising committee. Contact our Chair, Kate Berringer, at berringer@accesscomm.ca for more information.
4. Donate your resources! We cannot support our staff or volunteers to do the valuable work that they do without funding. Much of our funding comes from donors like you! If you wish to become a donor, please visit our website at antipoveryministry.ca to donate on-line or to download and complete a monthly pre-authorized debit donation form.

We are so grateful for your interest and look forward to having you on board with us as we continue to work towards a poverty-free Saskatchewan.
